- A translation of Autres oiseaux bleus by MiaQc

I fly and land on a tree branch. Other blue birds join me.

"Hey! I ask them. "Are you from Twitter too?"

The birds chirp in response. That must mean "no". At least they have the good life. There's no X replacing them! I should move on. Make a new life for myself. But I can't stop thinking about X. I hope, at least, that he's happy in his role as Twitter mascot.
